The concerned officers of the North Delhi Municipal Corporation were asked to file reports and it was only after holding hearings for over a period of about one year that it was possible to facilitate the petitioner to take the possession of the accommodation after all the civil as well as electrical works were got done. The only problem which still remains relates to settlement of water bill pertaining to the period before the occupation of the flat by the petitioner.
3. The concerned officers of the North Delhi Municipal Corporation should recover the pending water bills from the concerned officer who was in the possession of the quarter and not burden the petitioner with this liability for which he is not responsible. It should also be ensured that water supply connection is not disconnected by Delhi Jal Board on the ground of non payment of water bill.
