complainant to settle the matter amicably and both have agreed to withdraw their respective complaints. She requested for more time. As the complainant had no objection to that though he felt insecure, the request of the respondent for more time was allowed upto 29.12.2017. The parties were advised to intimate the outcome of the settlement vide Record of Proceedings dated 19.12.2017.

4. Dr. Pratibha Nanda, Medical Superintendent vide letter dated 04.01.2018 informed that the matter has been resolved amicably by Dr. Yogesh Tekwani and Dr. Jagriti Bhagora and they have submitted in writing that they did not want any further action in respect of their complaints. Copies of written submissions of Dr. Jagriti Bhagora and Dr. Yogesh Tekwani were also enclosed. Dr. Jagriti Bhagora has submitted that in order to maintain cordial relations among staff and in the interest of patient the complaints given by Dr. Tekwani against her and her complaint against Dr. Tekwani have been amicably resolved. She requested the Medical Superintendent to consider her complaints as cancelled and no further action is required. Dr. Tekwani vide his letter dated 3.01.2018 has submitted that he wants to cancel his complaint against Dr. Jagriti Bhagora as she has also withdrawn her complaints against him. He has also mentioned that in case Dr. Jagriti Bhagora goes back on her written statement, his complaint may be revived.

5. In the light of the submissions of the parties and their undertakings, the complaint is closed. It is however, made clear that the complaint of Dr. Yogesh Tekwani which he has cancelled, would not be revived as he has option to file fresh complaint in case of any harassment on the ground of his disability.

6. The matter is disposed of accordingly.
